The Mallee on the Map – Mildura Arts Centre

Thursday 1 – Sunday 25, 10am-4pm daily

Mildura Arts Centre, 199 Cureton Avenue, Mildura

When Eileen Ramsay began collecting plants in the late 1940s, the self-described 'lover of the wild' and passionate plant collector expressed an earnest desire to help put the Mallee area on the map. Over the years, Eileen collected more than a thousand plants, adding ten species to the list of plants formally recorded in Victoria. Originally conserved at Mildura Arts Centre, Eileen's plant collection is now housed in the National Herbarium of Victoria at Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria, where it contributes to critical science and conservation research. The Mallee on the Map provides a special glimpse into this important collection and celebrates Eileen's life and botanical legacy.

Entry: Free.

For more information, contact Mildura Arts Centre on (03) 5018 8330

Sound and Escape – Mildura Arts Centre

Thursday 1 – Friday 30, 10am-4pm daily

Mildura Arts Centre, 199 Cureton Avenue, Mildura

Soundscape and Landscape is a contemplation of an aspect of the life of Mallee botanist Eileen Ramsay. Created by artists Christine Johnson and Angus Craig, the exhibition emphasises the grief and loss she experienced following the deaths of her two brothers in Gallipoli. Every Anzac Day, Eileen was known to retreat to the bush, to seek solitude and to remember them. She wrote The Troopships of Anzac while living in Red Cliffs, where her family moved after World War I.

Entry: Free.

For more information, contact Mildura Arts Centre on (03) 5018 8330.

Great Movements of Feeling – Mildura Arts Centre

Thursday 1 – Friday 30, 10am-4pm daily

Mildura Arts Centre, 199 Cureton Avenue, Mildura

Developed for the 2018 Next Wave Festival, Great Movements of Feeling considers emotion through personal and historical lenses, as a flowing drive that occurs between people, concepts and objects.

Entry: Free.

For more information, contact Mildura Arts Centre on (03) 5018 8330.

Les Chandler: Ahead of His Time – Mildura Arts Centre

Thursday 1 – Friday 30, 10am-4pm daily

Mildura Arts Centre, 199 Cureton Avenue, Mildura

Les Chandler was one of Australia's early ornithologists and conservationists, and one of Red Cliffs' original soldier settlers. This exhibition provides, for the first time, the opportunity for you to view the range of Les Chandler's incredible photography, some of his ingenious photographic equipment, and material selected from his archives. The themes explored include WWI, early block life at Red Cliffs, scenes both local to the Mallee and further afield, natural history subjects, and the fascinating people he met along the way.
